PAUL METZLER Head Professional

“Ask anyone, golf is hard. I want to show you ways of making it easier” says Head Professional Paul Metzler. Having actively played golf for most of his life, Paul is passionate about spreading his knowledge and expertise to help players improve their game.

“I believe this sport is all about fighting our natural instincts. The question I am asked most by golfers is ‘what’s missing from my swing?’. My answer is always, ‘nothing, you have just about five things too many in your swing. We need to simplify your swing and not complicate things.’ If we can take away the natural instinct to want to do so much to help the ball go and actually focus on hitting the correct points in the swing with good timing, then golf becomes much easier physically.”

Paul has been playing golf since the age of 12, and was a member of the Mission Viejo High School Golf Program for four years through to graduation. After a brief hiatus, he joined the team at Lake Forest Golf Center and started as an assistant for the Nike Golf Camps. Through the years, he has continued to work hard and become a better player and instructor. Paul currently teaches our Junior Academy Program and also offers private lessons for all levels of golfers. He has also returned to his alma mater, Mission Viejo High School, to inspire a future generation of golfers by serving as Golf Coach for the Boys Team.
